

THE LITTLE BABE DIED YESTERDAY.

ALL THAT CAREFUL NURSING
COULD DO COULD NOT
KEEP IT ALIVE

IT WILL BE BURIED THIS MORNING.

The Beautiful Child Unclaimed by Father or Mother, Finds a Home Beyond the Skies.

The little stranger is dead. It would seem incredible, yet it is truthful that every person that heard this news on our streets yesterday seemed over-anxious to know more about it.

Without a mother to claim it, strangers had attempted to raise it, and our people seemed ready to adopt it as a Raleigh child.

It died yesterday morning at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. Jack Beasley, who had cared for it and loved it enough to give it a home. Everything was done to save its life, but in vain. It seemed as the fulfillment of the scriptural quotation: "When thy father and thy mother forsake thee, then the Lord will take thee up."

The physician that attended upon the child says there were indications that she had been drugged with something like opium, which he thought was the indirect cause of the child's death.

It will be buried this morning at ten o'clock.

Base-Ball.

There will be a game of base-ball played Thursday afternoon, June 4, at the Athletic Park between two colored clubs, Eclipse of Durham and the Nationals of this city. Game called at 4 p. m.

Appointments by Governor Holt.

Governor Holt yesterday appointed Mr. J. W. Cotten Inspector of Small Arms Practice for the Second Regiment, with the rank of Captain, and H. H. McIlhenny as First Lieutenant and Adjutant of the Second Regiment.

Reception to Miss Hampton.

Mrs. Dr. Richard H. Lewis gave an elegant reception on last evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock, to Miss Hampton, daughter of Senator Wade Hampton, of South Carolina. A large yet select crowd of Raleigh's young people were delighted and honored with the presence of so splendid a lady in their city and took occasion to be present.

He Fell Suddenly.

Mr. W. T. Alley, of Franklin county, who is a witness in the United States Court, while upon the witness stand yesterday, was seized with a sudden convulsion and fell, being taken away exceedingly sick. He was taken to the Mason House, and when last heard from, was very low.

Bird's Eye View of Raleigh.

Mr. Pink C. Ennis, is busy engaged in preparing a bird's-eye view of the city of Raleigh. He informs us that it has been twenty years since a bird's eye view was made and so far he is enabled to state that the growth of Raleigh would greatly surprise everyone for the number of houses has almost doubled such a view would be worth a great deal to the city.

Warren in Line.

WARRENTON, N. C., June 2.—The commissioners of Warren county yesterday appropriated $500 for their exhibit at the Southern Exposition.

Raleigh Music Festival.

It is proposed to have a music festival in this city on next September and have the first talent in the State on the programme. Our Raleigh people cannot imagine the great indirect as well as direct benefits derived from it. We hope it will be arranged.

BEAUTIFUL MUSIC! BEAUTIFUL GIRLS!

THIS WAS THE UNIVERSAL VERDICT RENDERED BY THE GREAT CROWD
LAST NIGHT

WHO HEARD PROF. BAUMAN'S CONCERT.

An Hour Spent in the Splendid Studio Among Lovely Pictures and Charming Women.

It was a delightful and brilliant occasion last evening at Peace Institute. The first rendition was "The Spring" (Moderati), by the vocal class, led by that beautiful and cultivated young lady, Miss Helen Malloy.

After the conclusion of this piece, "Polonaise Militaire" (Chopin), was rendered on six pianos by Misses B. B. Krider and N. Cannon, S. Webb and M. Withers, B. Dinwiddie and K. Belvin, H. Uzzell and L. Wynne, J. Pope and G. Whaley, M. Heartt and J. Holt.

This was perhaps the best of the six-piano series. The time was excellent.

Miss Jane Henderson then sang "Brightly the Sunlight Gleaming" (Metra) in a most creditable manner, and it might be said that this is her first year in vocal music.

That beautiful "Double Trio," "Breezes so Softly Sighing" (Campana), was next very acceptably rendered by Misses W. Simmons and K. Belvin, M. McAllister and S. Brown, L. Allen and L. Bell. An "Overture to Eberon," Weber, was played upon six pianos by Misses M. Dinwiddie and S. Webb; M. McAllister and F. Hunt, L. Lewis and B. Turner, L. Nobles and M. Burke, N. Schively and M. Woodcott, M. Barber and M. Ashley.

Miss Daisy Branson sang "The Flower Girl" (Bevignani), after which Misses Bonnie Oats and Emma Watkins, F. Hunt and N. Hunt, B. Watkins and Bertha Oates sang "where Roses Bloom," double trio, Puschel. It was excellent both in time and harmony of voices.

The last of the six piano series was next rendered by Misses C. Claypoole and M. McAllister, M. Dinwiddie and S. Webb, M. Fleming and M. Tomlinson, W. Simmons and F. Williamson, C. Knox and N. Leach, L. Bell and J. Henderson. The price was an "Overture to Sargina" (Pier).

The last piece of the first part was "Tis now our Festal Hour"—Quartet, Wallace, by Misses H. Malloy, W. B. Graves, W. Simmons and D. Branson. This was decidedly the best piece of the first part and was highly applauded.

The second part was opened by Misses Maud Merrimon and Willie Brown Graves in an instrumental duet, "Grand Var. de Concert"—(Puritaner) Liszt. Excepting one slight mistake this piece was exceedingly well performed. Miss Willie Simmons sang that superb song, "Chi Gioja" (Matti) which was splendidly rendered.

A very acceptable duet, "The Fan" (Leslie), was sung by Misses Laura Cordon and Bonnie Oates. Miss Lena Allen then Played "Rhapsody No. 12, Liszt, this difficult piece was handled very easily by Miss Allen.

The audience next enjoyed one of the rarest treats of commencement in the shape of a vocal solo, "Ernani Involami" Verdi by Miss Malloy. She sang better last night than ever before. Every one enjoyed the full, rich voice of Miss Malloy.

Also one of the most excellent instrumental pieces of the evening was rendered by Miss Bessie Krider, who had already introduced herself so pleasantly on Friday night in "the House on the Hill" Her piece last night brought forth many encomiums of praise from a critical audience.

Miss Willie Brown Graves sang as her farewell piece a "Shadow Song" from Dinorale meyerboer. Miss Graves will have a very favorable impression behind when she leaves for her home in Virginia, and she may not know it, yet Raleigh will hold her in remembrance. She was enshored but did not respond.

Maj. E. G. Harrell then in a few apt words presented Prof. Bauman's musical medals to the following young ladies. Misses Merrimon, Graves and Malloy.

Then the grand concert closed with Symphony No. 5, 6 pianos. Beethoven, by Misses Allen and F. Williamson, M. Merrimon and B. Dinwiddie, F. Hunt and L. Lewis, C. Claypoole and W. Simmons, B. and C. Watkins, W. B. Graves and M. Bennett. The young people had a very happy time. The whole commencement exercises have reflected GREAT credit upon Prof. Dinwiddie as President and upon Prof. Bauman as musical director of the Institute.

This closes Prof. Dinwiddie's first year at Peace Institute, and we take occasion to say here that he has not only proven to the Institute and his pupils a faithful guardian, but he has labored faithfully and zealously in all good causes. May he have another such year, bright, and still brighter with glowing successes.

Notes in the Art Studio.

This hall, although very large is well filled with beautiful drawings, artistic paintings and shapely moulds.

The prizes were not awarded to the young ladies who had the best pictures, but to those who had the best average in studio work.

The most noticeable pictures are by Misses Pearsall, B. Dinwiddie, W. B. Graves, Malloy, Seawell, Shaw, B. Williamson, E. Worth, Allen, Leach, Dockery and Carver. The China paintings were beautiful, being done by Miss Pearsall.

All Monday and last night, when the studio was open, it was packed until Prof. Dinwiddie rang the bell, that DREADED bell. The exhibit reflects great credit upon Miss Buck, the art teacher, who is par excellence in her department.

INSURANCE CO.

OF NEW YORK.

RICHARD A. McCURDY, President.

Assets.....$147,154,961 20
Liabilities.....137,173,727 82
Surplus.....$9,981,233 38

When solicited to insure in other Companies, remember that THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY of New York is entitled to your first consideration, since it holds the foremost place among the Life Insurance Institutions of the world, and offers superior advantages in all the features of business, together with unequalled financial security.

- 1.—It is the OLDEST active Life Insurance Company in this country.
- 2.—It is the LARGEST Life Insurance Company in the world.
- 3.—It is the STRONGEST financial institution in the world, its assets amounting to more than $157,000,000.
- 4.—It is the SAFEST Company in which to insure.
- 5.—It is the CHEAPEST Company in which to insure. Its large dividend returns reduce the actual cost of Insurance to a minimum.
- 6.—It is the BEST Company in which to insure, as it combines all the advantages of age, large and select membership, financial strength, absolute security, and the cheapest insurance that is honestly possible under any contract which has a definite value to the beneficiary.
- 7.—It has no stockholders to claim any part of the profits. The assets and surplus all belong to the insured.
- 8.—Its ratio of expenses to receipts shows the most economical management.
- 9.—Its New Policy is the most liberal ever offered by any Insurance Company.
- 10.—It places no RESTRICTIONS upon Travel, Occupation or Residence after becoming two years in force.
- 11.—Being PRACTICALLY NON-FORFEITABLE and INCONTINGENT it provides a legacy and not a lawsuit.
- 12.—It is the SIMPLEST and most comprehensive form of Insurance Contract ever issued. If the Policyholder pays his Premium while he lives, the Company will pay the full value of his Policy when he dies.
- 13.—All CLAIMS are paid immediately upon acceptance of proof of death.
- 14.—The DISTRIBUTION POLICY of this Company presents a most attractive investment feature. It not only accumulates the surplus arising from the premiums over the cost of the insurance on each policy in force during the distribution period, but increases it by compound interest.
